‘Women in Motion’ is a celebration of the strength, beauty and sensuality of women. The natural beauty of a woman’s body and physique forms another subtle undertone of each of the paintings in this collection. All the paintings forming part of ‘Women in Motion’, were inspired by a calendar containing pictures of dancers in motion, which was compiled by Renee Watson (of Renee Watson Pilates studios), and which immediately instilled feelings of happiness and delight in Ilze when she first laid eyes on them.

The collection comprises of three distinct categories, with each category uniquely capturing moments of serenity. The categories are:

- Black and white nudes – these paintings reflect mystery and sensuality;
- Figures immersed in water – these works embody pure beauty and calmness;
- Dancers in motion on white background – each of these images captures raw energy and strength.

The combination of the themes portrayed in all three of the abovementioned categories brings together the key elements of being a woman and deserves to be celebrated!

Ilze Coetzee Solo Exhibition ‘Women in Motion’ will be officially opened by Edith Venter on Thursday 30 September 2010 at Miele, Gallery of Fine Living, 63 Peter Place, Bryanston, Johannesburg.

The exhibition ends 30 October 2010
