croc E moses 2011

Last season
My heart was frozen
A broken riverbed
Tired of sleeping
Bleeding glacier tears
A river dying to see
Slow motion
Perpetual ocean
It's hard to stay soft
In these tides of love
There's tension
The fertile tension of being born
Dying to be airborne

With words I've feathered my wings
I need to surrender I want to fly
I just don't know how to die
To forgive love its captivity
Is to forgive love its mystery

Rainfall free for all
Always laughing a new love song
That nobody can sing but everybody knows
Oh how singing can be a way of flying that doesn't need wings
Songlines bring me here
To hear my glacier tears
Falling flying flowing
My tears are ripe as rain
My heart's rain river dying to see
Slow motion perpetual ocean
Wrapped up in these tides of love
Love is constant
The constant trace element
Connecting everything happening
To forgive love its invisibility
Is to forgive love its returnity

Sigh deep sigh of relief
New lease on seamlessness
Life is for dying
Life is for loving
Love is forgiving
Grace can still be amazing
It brings me near
Songlines bring me here
To sing glacier tears
