

PLAY
LEARN
BUILD SHAPE

SHEEM2SOUL

ZAMANTUNGWA KHUMALO

Zamantungwa anchors a current affairs talk show on Voice of Wits FM, tutors students on Model United Nations debating and volunteers for the Student Development and Leadership Unit as an FYE (First Year Experience) Ambassador. She is currently reading for her BA degree, with a triple major in International Relations, Political Studies and Law. She also runs a fashion business with clients in Johannesburg, Pretoria, Cape Town, Botswana and Canada. Zamantungwa represented South Africa at the One Young World Summit in Zurich, Switzerland in September.

TSHIDISO MABOTE

Tshidiso was born in Katlehong, where he spent his childhood till the age of 9. Since then he has not spent more than 2 years in one place. Being constantly uprooted meant also changing schools. He attended 7 in total and almost always had to learn a new language. In his final year of school in 2008 he was introduced to a new language of storytelling through film through Jenny Buccos, the director and founder of an international educational webseries, Project Explorer. In 2011 he was given the opportunity of a lifetime as an apprentice with Project Explorer's Central America Series.

KEEGAN SMITH

NEO RANGA JANE

Born in Mafikeng in 1975, Neo occupies his time with images/words/sounds/people. His work is essentially humorous, emotive, and intriguing commentary. He relishes the opportunity to use his voice in a stand against ignorance, inequality, disease and boredom.

ZANELE NKHOMO

Zanele's passions lie in automotives, engines, automation and systems. She has just completed her Mechanical Engineering degree at University of Johannesburg. She is a member of SWIET – UJ Women in Engineering Society and a mentor for the South African Women in Engineering.

NIMROD MOLOTO

By teaching children how to read and perform music, Melodi founder Nimrod Moloto ensures that whistling is not the only musical opportunity that South African children have.

MBULELO NHLAFISO

A seasoned copywriter who has been awarded around the globe. A graduate with a BComm degree and A-Levels from Cambridge University. Mbulelo has won Grand Prix at the Loerie Awards and a couple of gold statuettes along the way. He has featured in the New York Ad Festival, Clio Awards and at Cannes. His video for Channel O was voted the best of the year. He was selected 2011 Loerie Judging Panel Chairman for the Student category. He's also a published writer and has written a movie script that will some day soon win him an Oscar for Best Foreign Film.