

Old Wisdom Young Energy Conference

Where vibrant, youthful perspectives meet wisdom, experience and retrospection

Purpose:

- To create a forum where young budding visionaries can form an ideas-tank with veteran changemakers.
- To transform frustrations and despondency into creativity and action through constructive brainstorming and interactive conversation.
- To help build accountable citizens and competent communities.

Topic: “Old Wisdom/Young Energy: Conversations for new possibilities in a polarised South African context.”

Keynote Speakers: Committed well known South African personalities from different walks of life. e.g. Professor Jonathan Jansen who says “this is an idea I have been thinking about for some time.”

Venue: Cape Town. Presently negotiating for a hotel/conference centre as a partner.

Date: TBA, Saturday, after Easter, 2019

Time: 9am to 4.30pm

Cost: R1000

In the spirit of cooperative generosity we would like to offer assistance on application and would appreciate an optional donation if you are able to sponsor a delegate. Delegates could also motivate their own sponsorship.
All proceeds will go towards Link2Grow’s “Adopt a Mentee” programme for matrics.
