

PINK CHURCHES
By croc E moses 2001

do you
do you lie in stereo do you ever get the urge to rewind rewind the radio do you play attention play attention and listen to your pillow do you pay to play....do you smile when you pray do you pray do you plant
do you have a plant do you love your plant do you know your plant is in love with you do you draw south portraits after you trade in your compass do you do you state the oblivious if it's obvious do you do you remember last December nevermind nirvana
    in November
do you find your fault lines fun funny fine your spine is fine do you get bored with subconscious cheat on your blindness do you hide the crack in your face making the mirror nervace do you know your weakness is this strong this strong this strong this strong...weakness is this strong do you know you've just broken your own record do you curse all your could haves your would haves damnit you should have do you resist symmetry for your own sanity do you ever think the mercenary will take up trip hop drummin do your words become a weapon when you sit still with a pen do you pull pull pull your punctures punish with unsent letters do you burn the bread board do you binge from the fringe do you panic
do you meet your bullet your drop(s) to dust do you risk or do you rust do you dig for stars do you search for the drips I mean do you search for the tap do you miss...the drips...at the door do you seize to believe because you cease to believe do you fondle your billion honour the thief within...or do you pass the cushion get the treasure off your chest do you hear the bleeding only now indulge in healing do you unzip your mind do you lean on the ceiling do you practice left hand dishwashing now close your eyes and try it with no hands do you feel better because you fail better do you stalk yourself for loop wholes grow young grow young as you glow old
    do you see
    pink charges
    on the border to the heartland
