

High Above The Toys: Butan x Demolition Squad

21 March 2014, Friday

Join us at Two By Two Art Studio for the launch of the latest range of clothing by Butan Wear SA in collaboration with the Demolition Squad Johannesburg graffiti crew. Limited edition clothing including caps and T-shirts will be on sale on the evening. Get yours before they hit the shops.

Maneuvering through the precarious streets of Johannesburg one can't help but notice a particularly emphasised name: DEMOLITION SQUAD. Established in 1999, DS has undoubtedly become one of the most prolific graffiti crews in South Africa. The crew consists of five artists: TAPZ, MARS, TYKE, FIYA and AYBE, who have been flying the flag "high above the toys" since its inception. This garment was created by fusing street level graffiti knowledge with cutting edge street wear design, resulting in a piece of art that reflects not only our collective passion for street culture, but offers a unique perspective of our world through the eyes of our generation.
