

Water Abounding Love Resounding

By croc E moses 2010

I discover myself drinking water but never tasting it
Only now do I begin to sing...Praise praise for all that we receive
That we don't see or perceive
Praise jah mystery...Praise jah mystery mercy here to help us cry
Praise jah rain seed here to help us cry ourselves back alive
Let's cry the rivers back alive
Let's cry Camissa's sweet water back alive
There's resurrection in a river rhythm
There's resurrection in a river rhythm ...praise jah
Praise jah rebearthquake,
Praise jah ground gone gong
The leaves waves us on
We are songed upon
It's the ancestors
The ancestors my friend are blowing in the wind
The ancestors are blowing in the wind
Like a waft of cinnamon...thank god I am not another spice girl like EMINEM
Woah! That's a shot below the belt
In this land of stray bullets we don't need more shots below the belt
Got to focus on gratitude
This could be the way to start unlocking bigger picture focus
Got to focus on water gratitude
This could be the way to start diffusing the borders of our landlocked perception
Perhaps everyday is a new universe
Praise praise for all that we receive that we don't see
Praise jah mystery...pace and the pulse and the peace
