

ALL ABOARD FOR TAX JUSTICE

THE TAX JUSTICE TOUR IS COMING!

Where: Christ Church, Spitalfields

Commercial Street, London E1 6QE

When: 13 September 6.30pm

Explore the bus before the main event 7-9pm.

Tax dodging costs developing countries an estimated US$160bn every year – more than the annual global aid budget.

So this autumn we're taking the message of tax justice on the road – in our Tax Justice Bus. We'd love you to get on board.

Join us for an evening of debate, community conversation and action exploring the morality of tax dodging and how it affects lives and livelihoods in the UK and around the world.

The evening is hosted by Christian Aid and Church Action on Poverty.
Community Conversation facilitated by the Contextual Theology Centre.

Chair: Revd Canon Dr. Giles Fraser

Dr Fraser is Priest-in-charge at St Mary, Newington, and former Canon Chancellor of St Paul's Cathedral. A columnist for The Church Times and The Guardian, he writes on contemporary philosophical thought, ethics and art.

Panel to Include:

- Peter Osborne – Chief Political Commentator, The Telegraph
- Savior Mwamba – Executive Director, Centre for Trade Policy & Development, Zambia
- Stephanie Lis – Institute of Economic Affairs
- Revd Dr. Sabina Alkire – Director, Oxford Poverty & Human Development Initiative

For more information contact Christian Aid:

0207 523 2159

LSE@christian-aid.org

The Contextual Theology Centre
Christian action in a multi-faith society